

Why Are You My Mother?

A Mother's Response to Her Adopted Daughter

Children's Book Now Available!

Dreams Due Media Group,

a Colorado-based children's book publisher, is pleased to announce the debut of its first book at the 2007 CSFPA Annual Education Conference! Why Are You My Mother? is an important resource in a growing line of adoption and foster care stories. Written by Deborah Hamilton, foster and adoptive parent and CSFPA member, Why Are You My Mother? is the story of how the sometimes harsh reality of foster care blooms into the tender promises of new beginnings.

It is available exclusively through Dreams Due Media Group online at www.dreamsdue.com.

"As a foster child, my daughter used to IMAGINE life with a family she could call her own. She learned in time to BELIEVE that 'forever' could actually happen to her. At long last, she was fortunate to ACHIEVE her greatest dream – of being part of a forever family. It is my hope that the dreams of all foster children will one day blossom into many happily-ever-afters."
